

Thanksgiving Day Mad Libs

On Thanksgiving day, we traveled to _____'s (relative)

house. On the way we saw a _____ going down (noun)

the street. It had several large _____ and a (plural noun)

marching _____. We stopped with _____ to (noun) (emotion)

watch it pass. When we got to _____'s house, (relative)

we carried in our famous _____ and put it on (food)

the _____. We also saw _____, _____, (noun) (person) (person)

and _____. Everything smelled so _____!
(person) (adjective)

During our Thanksgiving meal, we talked about _____ and _____'s _____. My favorite food (noun) (relative) (verb+ing)

was the _____. I felt _____! There were _____ (food) (emotion) (number) desserts! It was a(n) _____ Thanksgiving Day! I can't wait (adjective)

to do it again next year!

How To Make The Best Pumpkin Pie Mad Libs

Step 1: Preheat the oven to _____. Remove the pie crust (number) from the _____ and place it in a pie pan. Bake it for (kitchen appliance)
_____ minutes until the dough is _____ and _____.
(number) (adjective) (adjective)

Step 2: When the crust is done _____, combine the (verb +ing)
pumpkin pie ingredients in a large _____. These (noun)
ingredients include pumpkin, _____, and _____, (food) (food)
and the spices _____, _____, and _____.
(spice) (spice) (spice)
Don't forget the _____! Whisk until _____.
(food) (adjective)

Step 3: Pour the filling into the _____ and _____ (kitchen object) (verb)
for _____ minutes until the filling is _____.
(number) (adjective)

Step 4: Cool for _____ hours. Top with _____ (number) (food)
and enjoy _____ your _____ pie!
(verb +ing) (adjective)

