

The Star-Spangled BBQ Disaster

It was a _____ 4th of July afternoon, and the _____ family (adjective) (last name) was having their annual BBQ at their _____. It was all going well (place)
until _____ into the grill. Suddenly, hot dogs went (name 1) (past verb)
_____ in every direction! "_____!" yelled _____, but it (verb +ing) (exclamation) (name 1) was too late. A hot dog _____ across the yard and landed right on (past verb)
top of _____'s _____. They looked up with a _____ (name 2) (body part) (emotion)
face and shouted, "_____!" Meanwhile, over by the picnic table, the (exclamation)
fireworks were being set up by _____, who was holding a _____ (name 3) (adjective) sparkler. But as they tried to light it, they accidentally lit a whole box of _____ instead. The sky filled with _____ colors and the (type of firework) (adjective)
neighbors could hear the _____ booms in every direction. The dogs, (adjective)
who were already way too _____ from the smell of BBQ, began (adjective)
running around in circles and knocked over the picnic table. The _____ (food)
flew everywhere and landed mostly on _____'s shirt. "That's it!" yelled (name 2)
_____ in frustration! But just as they were about to give up, mom (name 2)
brought out her famous _____ pie topped with ice cream and saved (fruit)
the BBQ from total disaster! Happy 4th of July everyone!

